Excerpt from Decade Sermons: Two Historical Discourses Occasioned by the Close of the First Ten Years Ministry in California; Preached in the Howard Street Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, March, 1859 And when indeed I did decide to come to California, when I did consent to embark in the mission to this coast, it was by no means in view of circumstances like these. It was not known or suspected that gold existed here, at the time of that decision. And still, without that knowl edge, the country seemed to be of importance sufficient to warrant the decision. And it may be as well here to recall some of the leading characteristics of California as they appeared before the gold discovery, and put them on record before they are forgotten and lost.
