Charles Nolan Publishing. No binding. Book Condition: New. Pamphlet. 68 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.2in. For J. C. Ryle (1816-1900) the question Shall We Know One Another was a heartfelt inquiry of one who buried three wives. His first wife, Matilda, died after less than two years marriage, when he was thirty-one. Two-and-a-half years later, he married his second wife, Jessie, only to lay her in the grave within ten years. His third wife, Henrietta, died after twenty-seven years of holy matrimony, when he was seventy-two. Well could he write, The closest relation on earth the marriage bond has an end. The Other Papers of this volume reveal both the narrow lens and broad scope of a biblical worldview. From planet Earth to Christian contentment, and from Neros household to words for women, a wide spectrum is considered all grounded in holy Scripture all centered in Christ. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Pamphlet.
