Hachette India, New Delhi, 2015. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 20 cms. xvi+222pp. A book on building - and being part of - a world-class team, written by globally respected sport psychology consultant and performance coach Simon Hartley. A highly practical guide for leaders, coaches and managers, designed not only to describe what great teams look like, but to provide the reader with a 'how to' guide, which enables them to develop greatness in their own team. Draws on exclusive interviews with members or former members of world-class teams - from the SAS and the Red Arrows to Formula One Race teams and America's Cup winning team members - as well as covering the approach of such legendary world beaters as the All Blacks. The author is a highly respected figure in British sport and Sir Ian McGeechan has provided a foreword endorsing the book's approach. 'Stronger Together is an insightful look into the inner world of world-class teams and how they came to be that way. Rhetoric- and pontification free, this is a serious study of team dynamics proven to work and applicable to us all' - Brendan Hall, victorious Clipper Round the World Yacht Race skipper. What do world-class teams do that others don't? How do those teams think, make decisions and respond to challenges? Stronger Together will help readers to understand what differentiates world-class teams from the rest. Using these insights, readers can apply the same key principles when leading - or being a part of - a team, whether they are in a business or sports environment. To illustrate how world-class teams operate and how they're led, the author draws on examples of teamwork from a diverse range of disciplines, from The Red Arrows to SAS Units, a Formula One Pit...
