

The Man Who Made Lists

By Kendall, Joshua

Putnam Adult, 2008. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Madness did not just run in [Rogets] family; it galloped, sped, sprinted, dashed and made haste. If the title of Joshua Kendalls fine new biography of Roget has a clinical Oliver Sacks feel, the material pretty much justifies it. . . . [Kendall] convinces a reader of the psychological roots and therapeutic success of the Thesaurus. New York Time Book Review The Man Who Made Lists is brisk and vivid, with Kendall coloring between the lines left by history. . . . Word geeks may find something to get their temperatures up. Los Angeles Times A readable and informative, if not masterful treatment of a worthy and fascinating subject. Seattle Times Who knew that the man behind the thesaurus also invented the slide rule, volunteered to test laughing gas, and barely avoided jail in revolutionary France? Library Journal Josh Kendalls biography trace[es] an intricate career and vividly depict[s] the early development of this extraordinary, quirky mind . . . Rogets achievement was certainly unique, and now the story of this troubled life and how he overcame his demons comes as pure revelation. California Literary...
