Tyrus Books. 1 Paperback(s), 2014. soft. Book Condition: New. In this follow-up to his popular anthology of stories and essays The Perils of Sherlock Holmes, Loren Estleman curates another collection of Sherlock Holmes-inspired stories, this time from several authors. The book showcases five stories that have never appeared together before, plus Estleman's own novella Sons of Moriarty, presented here for the first time."Estleman puts together one of the best of the wish-it-were-so pastiche anthologies, corralling stories that have Holmes confronting the automobile, thwarting an apparent kidnap plot in Wyoming, and in Estleman's own novella-length contribution battling the Black Hand. [The book includes] Robert Fish's howlingly funny, 'The Adventure of the Double-Bogey Man,' wherein Schlock Homes of Bagel Street is openly parodied."Booklist 205.
