Alone, bereft, he plunges into darkness among thieves and criminals, his quest become a deadly threat all its own. The game he is about to play will be his last and most dangerous. His own soul is at stake while he risks honor and identity in a final gambit to end his centuries long hunt. A grim promise must be kept, but Melisse knows doubt. Little does she suspect that mastery of her own destiny is an illusion as dark powers intercede and twist her to their will. Both hero and heroine find their paths turned by forces in opposition thus becoming pawns in a greater game of ensnarement and manipulation. Separately, then together, they will at long last confront their common destiny - a diabolical horror that will stop at nothing to destroy them both.
