There is a system of railroads, with Havana as its center. Havana is a large city, on a fine harbor. It has low, flat-topped houses, with bright-colored walls and red roofs. Matanzas is an important seaport. At Santiago de Cuba the United States destroyed the Spanish fleet and captured the Spanish army. 12. Porto Rico.--Among the Porto Ricans are many people of culture and refinement. The working class, many of whom are negroes, are very poor. There are over a hundred miles of railroad in the island. San Juan is on a landlocked harbor. Ponce (pronounced pon-se) is the second city in importance, and Mayaguez (pronounced may-ah-guez) is the third. The chief exports of the island are coffee, sugar and coconuts....
