Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Health of Schools: Papers; Read Before the American Social Science Associations, at Detroit, May, 1875 In answer to a call issued from the Department, a public sectional meeting was held during the whole of the 12th and half of the 13th of May, at which were read completed and authorized reports from the committee of the Department, upon two subjects; viz., The Nervous System as injuriously affected by Schools, and School Gymnastics. Brief communications, made in response to an urgent public demand for information, were also presented by the Department, concerning Defects of Sight, the Care of the Eyes, Medical Supervision of Schools, Systematic Inspection of Schools, Statistics of Sanitary State of Schools, Statistics of Rate of Growth of School-Children, and School Architecture. The latter series of papers must be considered as provisory, rather than as containing the full expression of the Department's opinion. The Secretary's Report, explaining more fully the character of the work done, was read without debate, at the first general session of the Association, on the evening of May 11; and an abstract of it is here prefixed to the other papers: - The report presented a year ago to the Association contained a summary of (the plan) then recently (adopted by the Department, for studying school hygiene.) It may be found in No. VII. of the Journal of the Association, printed September, 1874. Since then, the plan has undergone some slight modification. The following is the list of topics which the Department now intends to treat of: - 1. Heating and ventilation. 2. Light, and condition of the scholars eyes. 3. Seats, and deformities traceable to them....
