A charmingly told love tale of a Chinese girl of rank, who was educated in the mission schools; but was not converted to Christianity until later in life. After graduating, she returns to her father s house, and is betrothed to a man whom she has never seen. She is asked to return to the mission school to substitute for a teacher who is ill. There she finds that she cannot love her intended husband because of her love for another man. She is disowned by her father -but read the story and find out how it ended. - The Advance, Volume 62 [1911].
