The Paston Letters: A Selection in Modern Spelling

By Norman Davis

Oxford University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Paston Letters: A Selection in Modern Spelling, Norman Davis, The Pastons of Norfolk left behind them an incomparable picture of life in fifteenth-century England in the earliest great collection of family letters in English. The letters span three generations and most were written during the reigns of Henry VI, Edward IV, and Richard III, in a period of political turmoil, local anarchy, and war abroad and at home. They reveal personal hopes and anxieties, and contain as well as business matters a wealth of information on leisure pursuits, education, and domestic life. The writers express themselves with a clarity and vigour that is remarkable at this early date, and the letters illustrate, as no other documents can, the state of the language in daily use immediately before and after the introduction of printing. This modernized selection prepared from the original manuscripts is designed to present the full range of the Pastons' principal concerns. ABOUT THE SERIES: For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe. Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship, providing the most accurate text plus a wealth...

Reviews

Absolutely among the best book we have ever study. It is actually written in easy words instead of hard to understand. I found out this publication from my i and dad encouraged this book to find out.
