Excerpt: . . . some cases also by the probation officers, of the juvenile courts in the different states. It also contains an introduction by Dr. Barrows and an appendix giving the text of the laws in the different states. The other report is entitled Tuberculosis in Penal Institution, by Dr. J. B. Ransom, physician to Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York (House Document No. 142, 58th Congress). Members of Congress were so impressed with the value of the report that several thousand copies were ordered printed. Copies of these documents can be found for April, entitled Charity One Hundred Years Ago. This article, by the Countess of Jersey, is based upon five volumes of reports of the Society for Bettering the Conditions and Increasing the Comforts of the Poor--a society which was founded in 1796 and had many of our problems and some happy solutions. III The...
